TRELLEBORG DONATES EMPLOYEES' TIME TO CLEAN UP CITY

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE – (South Haven, Michigan) Trelleborg employees are assisting the City of South Haven by lending a hand in city parks and other public places. Every other Wednesday, the company allows 20 to 30 employees to rake, pick up trash, pull weeds and do other various tasks. They commit 30 to 60 minutes of their time to do their part in keeping the city beautiful.

The City of South Haven appreciates Trelleborg employees' time and efforts.

Trelleborg is a global engineering group. The company develops high-performance solutions that seal, damp and protect in demanding industrial environments. Trelleborg's head office is located in Sweden.
