New Sculpture Donated by SHOUT

City Council approved the acceptance of a new sculpture for the lawn at City Hall. The sculpture is located on the west side of the lawn at City Hall in the rain garden. The donation was made by SHOUT, a local organization.

The sculpture was created by Cynthia McKean, a Saugetuck based artist, and constructed out of welded steel elements which depict seagulls in flight.

Thank You to Parks Department Crews!

Gearing up and getting ready for the summer season is a big job for the Parks Department which has several parks and public spaces to maintain. We would like to thank the Parks Department crews for all the work they do in making our parks beautiful and well maintained. A shout-out goes to Chris Moret and Toni Moore for the downtown flowerbeds, and Steve Schewe (foreman), Justin Williams, Donald Kark, Darlene Masterson, Dustin Nickel, Dustin Johnson, Roy Johnson, Tanner Plochocki, Donna Jordan, and William Anders for their work. Thank you!
